

Workshop Recommendations:

Nasiriyya-July 17 2008

1. Create national TV and radio stations named The Integrity and Transparency TV and radio stations with a mission to highlight anti-corruption issues in the government ministries and educate citizens on transparency and integrity values.
2. Allocate part of the money refunded from corruption crimes to public informers so they can inform citizens about the corruption crimes.
3. Support civil society organizations who work on combating corruption and promoting transparency.
4. Abide by the rule of putting the right person in the right job.
5. Support the role of the media in combating corruption and corrupt people.
6. Avoid using parties' quota in government and administration jobs.
7. Restore trust between government employees and the government and provide more mechanisms that guarantee employers' rights to a decent living after leaving the job.
8. Restore the abolished Civil Service Council to better monitor the recruitment procedures in government jobs.